6. Public Comments:

Mr. Corey McDonald addressed the City Council regarding an article in the Kansas City Star depicting Lee's Summit as a racist city. He said it has to do with the school district, the Superintendent and the equity issues that are within the district. He gave a brief summary of himself and the experiences he and his family have had as part of the Lee's Summit community and school district. He added that he disagrees with the approach taken by the Superintendent of the school district. He expressed his appreciation of Mayor Baird's response to the article (note: the Mayor's response was printed in the Lee's Summit Tribune). He asked the elected officials and leaders in the city to stand up and speak against this. He told the City Council that he was asked to form a focus group that has been working on a presentation for the school board with ideas to try to eliminate the equity problems and achievement gap and he believes this can be done without screaming racism. The focus should be on fixing the problem with the process, then it will give opportunities to talk about race issues.

Ms. Pam Hatcher, Owner of Integrity Group Real Estate, addressed the City Council regarding Bill No. 19-45 for the 3rd Street Improvement Project. She stated there are 9 holdouts and cited concerns with documents mailed to the residents, the lack of education explaining the process of eminent domain and condemnation and the value that has been placed on the effected homes. She asked the Council to have conversations with staff about the process.

Ms. Geraldine Amato addressed the City Council regarding a traffic accident she recently had, the amount of irregularities in the court she experienced, the prosecuting attorney and law department, a requirement for her to give her finger prints, a log that was being kept on her inquires and communications she had with the City Attorney.

10. Council Comments:

Mayor Baird asked the Council for their opinions on reading Bills they had championed verses being assigned Bills to introduce. There was a general consensus to continue having the City Clerk's office assign Bills and Councilmembers can trade assignments before the meeting.

Councilmember Forte thanked Mr. McDonald for the comments he made. She felt they were very heartfelt and he expressed an opinion that she also feels. She added that it takes brave people to stand up and be part of the conversation and, as a community, we need to recognize we live in a great place and we only want to make it better. She again expressed her appreciation to Mr. McDonald.

Mayor Baird added "We have to be defenders of our city if we feel we are being labeled in an unfair way". He noted it wasn't a school district but a suburb, and citizens, that were referred to and it is not an accurate depiction of our community. He then advised that is when the Council is going to have to start getting involved.

Councilmember Johnson informed the Chair of the Rules Committee that he would be bringing a few items up for discussion regarding a process, or procedure, for how the Council communicates with each other on the discussion of issues.

Mayor Baird addressed the labor union employees in the room as the heart and soul of how the labor negotiations were handled. He thanked them for their faith, commitment and trust. The group showed a lot of trust in each other, the Mayor, City Management. He appreciates everyone that was involved.

There will be a reception for Mr. McKay on Friday, March 8, 2019 in Howard A Conference Room at 2:00 pm.
