Why interested: I am interested in serving on the Public Safety Advisory Board. I have lived in Lees Summit for over 15 years and want to serve the community. I feel that I would be a value add in the area of public safety. I care out the Lees Summit Community and feel that I could help in the area of public safety. I have worked at UMB for over 25 years. My son went to college this year and I have more time to commit to the community. I am looking forward to serving on this committee if there is a need.

Other participation: I have been active with the Lees Summit School District.

Interested in serving on: Public Safety Advisory
