3. Council Roundtable

Councilmember Shields stated she attended the Lee's Summit Educational Foundation breakfast last week. She heard updates about what the school district is doing, including partnerships with the City such as the new programs at the airport. She also reminded everyone this weekend is Oktoberfest in downtown and she hopes everybody makes it out.

Councilmember Edson shared that last Friday the Public Works Department held their annual snow rodeo to help practice for the coming weather. Councilmembers Prier and Edson participated and drove snow plows. She then mentioned 18 months to 2 years ago Bailey Park was vandalized beyond recognition. The Parks Department has restored and updated it. It is now open now and is beautiful. She commended the Parks Board and the Parks Department for a job well done and stated it is a great addition to that part of town.

Mayor Baird welcomed new City Manager, Mark Dunning.

8. Public Comments:

There were no Public Comments.

9. Committee Reports

There were no Committee Reports.

10. Council Comments:

Councilmember DeMoro asked if there is a date for the opening of Chipman Road underneath 50 Highway.

Councilmember Prier stated she listened to the Link to Lee's Summit podcast last night and heard them say the average person may not know why City Council de-funded the LSEDC (Lee's Summit Economic Development Council). She explained her reasons for voting yes was due to the LSEDC not meeting the expectations set forth in the agreement and for their lack of transparency.

11. Staff Roundtable

Mr. Mark Dunning, City Manager, acknowledged money is not flowing to the LSEDC (Lee's Summit Economic Development Council) but the city continues to have a working relationship with them. Some of the performance standards set forth in the Public Service Agreement were not met and that is why the funding stopped however, city staff continues to work with them to find a path forward.
