

Exhibit D

Article 15- Rules of Interpretation and Definitions

Division II- Definitions

Sec. 15.1510. - Home occupation.

Home occupation shall mean any lawful occupation performed by a resident that manufactures, provides or sells goods or services within activity conducted in a dwelling unit or accessory structure, which as an economic enterprise or for financial gain by members of the household residing therein that is clearly incidental and secondary to the use of the dwelling unit for residential purposes.