3. Council Roundtable

Councilmember Edson stated the County Legislature was considering a bill regarding Health Departments and their rules and regulations.

Mr. Brian Head, City Attorney, spoke briefly on the matter stating he believes the County is trying to implement some state regulations that are currently in place. Mr. Head did not wish to speculate on the reasons they were looking and these regulations, but he did state it was not approved and is pending further action at a later date.

Councilmember Forte said she felt there was a lot of disconnect regarding what the County was considering and if they are previous regulations that are currently being use, they are draconian with what they threaten. She hopes the City and the Council continues to monitor the discussions by the County.

Councilmember DeMoro wished Mayor Baird a happy birthday.
