7. Committee Reports

There were no Committee Reports.

8. Council Comments:

Councilmember Prier stated she has heard from a few local businesses about our liquor license procedures and would like to bring this back to CEDC. Chief Travis Forbes, Police Chief, stated due to the changes in liquor license types there was not a system in place to submit their gross receipts to make sure they were meeting the requirements and standards of 50% sales of alcohol and 50% food sales. This is to keep the presence of minors out of businesses known as bars. The licenses are renewing in July so now is the time to have this conversation before those renewals. Mayor Pro Tem Lopez agreed to assign this back to CEDC.

The City Council shared their reflections on the past several years, expressed their thanks to one another and wish all the best for the future and their future roles.

9. Staff Roundtable

There was no Staff Roundtable.

10. Adjournment - Sine Die

Hearing no further business, Mayor Baird adjourned Regular Session No. 70 - Sine Die at pm.

Mayor Baird presented plaque and expressed his appreciation to Councilmember Edson and Councilmember Felker for their years of service and continued commitment to the citizens of Lee's Summit. Mayor Baird also presented the Honorable Judge Tobin a plaque for his 35 years with the City of Lee's Summit and also expressed his appreciation for all his years of service and wished him the best for the future.

Ms. Trisha Fowler Arcuri, City Clerk, provided oaths and swore in the newly elected officials:

Councilmember Hillary Shields - District 1

Councilmember Trish Carlyle - District 2

Councilmember Cynda Rader - District 3

Councilmember Fred DeMoro - District 4
