Mayor Baird presented this proclamation to Ms. Vanessa Hickman, Chair of the Human Relations Commission and Ms. Debbie Brooks, member of the Human Relations Commission.

Ms. Hickman thanked the Mayor and City for their partnership and noted how the schools and local businesses have embraced this week of kindness.

5. Public Comments:

Ms. Susan Koffman thanked the Councilmembers for their service and acknowledged the amount of time they dedicate to the work they do.

Mr. Zak Al-Shawish asked Mayor Pro Tem Lopez, Councilmember Funk, and Mayor Baird to go on record and respond to his previous comments of their involvement with developers.

Mayor Baird responded and again noted he has never received incentives or profited from developers the City does business with. He spoke on his years of public service to the City of Lee's Summit and his ethical standing through all of it.

Councilmember Funk responded and advised he does not conduct business with anyone the City does business with. Most of his business is on the Kansas side (55%) with a few general contractors on the Missouri side that do not do business with the City.

Mayor Pro Tem Lopez responded and stated Mr. Al-Shawish was mistaken and wrong in regard to his assumptions of the Mayor Pro Tem's future career path. He has been a licensed real estate agent for over 30 years, but has not conducted a real estate transaction in Lee's Summit in 20 years. He does not do any business (commercial or residential) in Lee's Summit and never will as an elected official.

Ms. Teresa Vollenweider spoke on concerns of her neighbor and the Lee's Summit Police Department not respecting her property lines.
