- D. 2024-6637 Presentation and Continued Discussion: Unassigned General Fund Reserve Balance - considerations for funding

Mr. Mark Dunning, City Manager, gave general updates on each proposed project.

Chairperson Shields explained she asked staff to reformat the list putting it in order of what is being worked on and adding a notes section. She stated there will be a financial audit in 2025 and it is expected the City will add to the fund balance in 2025.

Committee discussions included:

-The Browning Property utilities and noted $2 Million owed to the Landfill

Post-Closure Fund

-World Cup talks with surrounding cities to partner with pooled funds. Wait for more information

-Gateway Monuments locations, size, upkeep and position on the list of projects since someone has come forward and pledged to help with costs

-Market Plaza will be open during the World Cup, pursue ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) and AV (Audio/Visual) needs

There was a consensus of the committee to move the Gateway Monuments project to the "pursue" category.

This Discussion Item was received and filed.
