Councilmember Prier asked about how legal notices are published since the Tribune is no longer publishing a daily paper. Mr. Brian Head, City Attorney, stated all legal / public notices are published in The Pulse which is recognized as a daily paper.

13. Staff Roundtable

Ms. Christal Weber advised the Human Relations Commission has invited everyone to participate in the “Take time to be kind week” from February 10 - February 15, 2025. They are recognizing all acts of kindness to include being kind to self, kind to animals, kind to others, etc. They have joined with some great partners such as Rediscover and the LSR7 School District. Each person can get a “passport” to fill in with all acts of kindness and they can be dropped off at City Hall to be eligible for prizes. There will also be a “Gratitude Station” located at City Hall from 8am - 5pm Monday - Friday of next week so people can come create signs or cards to show their appreciation. She encouraged everyone to post on social media to support the cause.

Mr. Mark Dunning, City Manager, advised of several road closures and road openings:

- Third Street is now open from Douglas to Green Street
- Second Street Noel to Market will be closed from February 3 - February 9th.
- Third Street and Jefferson will then be closed on February 10th until early April. All part of the 3rd street project that will be complete by November 2025.

Mr. Dunning also noted the weather tonight is calling for freezing rain / freezing drizzle and the crews are already out doing pretreatment of city roadways.

Mr. Dunning stated the Bi-Annual reports with all community partners that currently have a Public Service Agreements with the City have been received. These will be presented to the Council in March but he can share those reports in advance if they are requested.
