7. Roundtable

Vice Chair Trafton congratulated Commissioner Frazier on becoming City Council Woman for District 2, and this being her last meeting with Planning Commission. Commissioner Touzinsky asked about cost of Special Use Permit for extension on lighting and how does the City handle complaints for this. Hector Soto Senior Planner responded by saying, the cost for Special Use Permit is $1405.00 and any applicants would need to stay compliant with the current code or the City will open up a case to investigate. Commissioner Benbrook asked how the maintenance code is upheld. Hector Soto Senior Planner explains, first the City will open up Neighborhood Services case, send violation notice giving them 10 days to comply, then finally court and possibly fines. Vice Chair Trafton discussed the CEDC meeting from 4/8/2026, E bikes vs Motorized bikes.

8. Adjournment

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 6:27pm.
