Interest Response: I grew up in Independence, MO in a multicultural home and have lived in Lee's Summit for the last 7 years. I am of Polynesian decent (Samoan) with my father immigrating to the U.S. forty plus years ago and my mother born and raised in Minnesota. My blended upbringing gave me a unique perspective and understanding of our place and influence within our community. I met my husband at BYU-Hawaii who is also of Polynesian decent (Tahitian and Maori 'New Zealand') along with Irish/Scottish family ties. We have raised our two children in a multi-lingual home (speaking both English, French and Samoan) and are very involved with the Polynesian community in the area. We recently performed at the Kansas City Ethnic Festival at Swope Park and the Independence, MO, Independence Day Celebration. I am a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and have been teaching early morning seminary to youth for the past four years. This year we are studying the Bible (Old Testament). Over the years I have learned from our youth about their hopes and fears as well as the challenges they face at home, at school, and in our community. I had the chance to serve a church mission in California for 18 months and learned from people of different ethnicities and cultures about what they value in life. Most importantly, I am a full-time mother and home maker. I know what it takes to keep our home a safe haven and that starts with my interpersonal relationships with my spouse and children. I hope to use these experiences and skills to foster understanding, peace, and growth in our Lee's Summit community.
