Years as a resident: 0

High School Attended: North Kansas City, MO

College Attended: Kansas State University

Current Employment: John Knox Village

Position Held: Director of Operations and Development

Interest Response: As the Director of Operations & Development at John Knox Village, I have a vested interest in Lee's Summit as a whole, and specifically the availability and cost of water utilities. Prior to my 5 years in my current position, I was a contractor for 27 years and spent my first 5 years out of college working for Garney Companies, a utilities contractor that specialized in large diameter water and sewer projects. I have an interest in all things construction and have a Construction Science and Management degree from Kansas State University.

Other Activities: At JKV, we volunteer and man Brat Tent #1 at Oktoberfest every year. I am also a past graduate of Leadership Lee's Summit (2023), which included several volunteer activities to meet the requirements for that program.
