Interest Response: I appreciate the opportunity to continue serving on the Public Safety Advisory Board. I'm committed to supporting the safety and well-being of our community, and I believe consistent, engaged leadership helps build trust and accountability. With my experience, strong communication skills, and a collaborative approach, I'm confident I can keep contributing in a meaningful way during this next term.

Other Activities: In addition to serving on the Public Safety Advisory Board, I'm actively involved in several civic and philanthropic initiatives. I serve as Executive Director of the Parade of Hearts, a 501(c)(3) organization, and provide subject matter expertise advising other 501(c)(3) nonprofits. I'm the Founder and Co-Chair of the TC3 Legacy Task Force, Board Chair of the Heart of KC Foundation, and also serve on the boards of the BMA Foundation and the Infinity Foundation. These roles reflect my deep commitment to service, nonprofit leadership, and community collaboration.

Other Interests: In addition to my board and nonprofit leadership roles, I am deeply committed to addressing the systemic issues affecting Jackson County. This includes confronting challenges in crime prevention, inefficiencies in the judicial system, and the role and performance of the prosecutor's office. I believe real progress requires transparency, collaboration across sectors, and a clear commitment to accountability.

I am also passionate about helping smaller and underserved communities grow through economic development and tourism. When communities unite around shared goals, the possibilities are enormous. I consider myself a connector, someone who brings people, organizations, and ideas together to drive action and momentum.
