Subject: Support for City's Community Marketing Program

*** This email is from an external source, use caution before clicking on links or opening attachments. *****

Dear Mayor Baird and Mr. Arbo,

I am writing this email to you on behalf of Summit Art, to offer our support and encouragement for the continuation of the city's community marketing program.

Summit Art has been a beneficiary of the community's co-op marketing for its annual signature event, the Summit Art Festival. As the director for the festival, I relied on James McKenna's connections, expertise, insight and management of advertising logistics, including the creative services for advertising collateral.

For the last festival held in 2019, Summit Art contracted with Lee's Summit Chamber's community marketing and tourism division, for $7,000. Among the services provided were:

1. Geo-fencing at metro area venues/events with targeted digital ads. (Nelson-Atkins, KC Art Institute, Kemper Museum, Crossroads, KC Artists Coalition, Kauffman Center, West Bottoms, and various other art fairs)
2. KC Studio Magazine print ads
3. "The Bridge" radio spots, onsite spots, pre-recorded and live

4. Entercom - scheduled remotes and 15-second spots on The Wolf and The Point
5. Billboards - digital and vinyl ads
6. Missouri Life Magazine - print ad and digital event listing
7. VisitKC - digital event listings and mentions

As the co-op program shares expenses across multiple entities, and is therefore able to negotiate reduced costs, Summit Art was able to reap the benefit of actual advertising value of over $14,000.

Using the co-op program meant that Summit Art also benefited from the extremely creative team at the chamber in the design of ads and the writing of scripts for the radio spots. And, therefore, all ads complied with the community branding standards. The design-style of the community branding helped our ads be more recognized as part of something associated with the city of Lee's Summit.

Summit Art, a small local nonprofit arts organization, simply does not have the connections, skill sets, finances or staff to pull off this high level of advertising for its event, without the services of the community's co-op marketing program. Our attendance throughout the three-day weekend totalled over 20,000! We firmly believe that this many people visited our downtown and the festival specifically due to the efforts of James McKenna, the chamber staff and its community co-op marketing program. Area businesses benefited from greater patron traffic.

Summit Art hopes that the city of Lee's Summit will continue to support, and provide the community with, this invaluable co-op marketing program.

Thank you,

Jody Fristoe | Director
