

For the reasons stated, staff has no objection to issuance of a building permit prior to final plat approval if the Council were to direct staff accordingly. Administrative processes are all that remain to approve and adopt the final plat.