Commercial Economic Development Opportunities - presentation and discussion

Staff will present the Community and Economic Development Committee with an overview presentation on the amount of available commercial and industrial zoning and areas of the City where opportunities and impediments to commercial development exist within the City. The purpose of the presentation and discussion is to create a greater awareness of these opportunities and impediments to commercial development which will be of assistance in the Citizen Strategic Planning process as well as the City's Comprehensive Master Plan update process that will be discussed at the September 13, 2018 City Council meeting.

Presenter: Ryan Elam and Josh Johnson
