Key Issues:

- The City has public service agreements with four community to provide services that expire on June 20, 2020
- Due to the current public health crisis, more time is needed for all parties to work on revised PSAs, but it is important to continue service delivery in the interim
- A short term extension of the current agreements until December 31, 2020 will allow necessary time to review and revise PSAs while continuing service provision.
